Christmas At Brorson

by Ryker MacGrady

On December 11th, Brorson had our Christmas program. First, we ate the potluck supper.

Then we sang. Our songs were Jingle Bell Rock, Oh Christmas Tree, We Three Kings, and The 12 days of Christmas. Everyone loved our songs. Then we did a reader's theater called

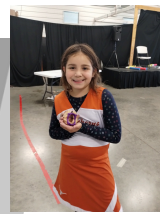

The Gingerbread Dude. It was fun and everyone laughed. That was our Christmas program and it was a really fun night.

LET'S GO

ADVENTURE

Halloween

by Atlas Edinger, Braxton Roberts, and Hazel Larson

On October 30th, we celebrated Halloween. We played Halloween activities such as spider races and spider potions. The potions was a little cauldron with baking soda, vinegar, and there was food dye and a little spider. There was an explosion when we mixed it. We also did a pasta noodle Jenga game and we had to make sure the spider didn't fall down. Atlas liked the spider race because every time it was his turn he won. Braxton's favorite activity was the spider jenga. For a treat, we made a monster donut with glazed donuts, edible eyes, and plastic vampire teeth. They were delicious. We had so much fun at the Halloween party.

Thanksgiving

by Xander MacGrady

On November 25th, we had our Thanksgiving program Macy's Day Parade.

We learned about the Macy's day parade. We all made our balloons out of paper, tin foil, markers, and Sharpies. On Thanksgiving night our teacher Mrs. Jensen read about our characters and we walk up onto the stage like a parade. Scarlett made Hello Kitty, I had Sonic the Hedgehog, Ryker made the M&M guy, Jackson had Mike Wasowski in Monsters Inc, Hazel had Cinnamon Roll, Braxton made the Grinch, Atlas had Snoopy, Kiersta had Stitch, and Katrina made Pikachu the Pokemon.

Jazz Assembly

by: Kiersta Jensen

On November 19th, we went to an assembly at Rau. When we were at the assembly we sat down and a man played the Saxophone. He played some songs and there were different sizes of the saxophone. There was this very small one and a big one. One of the Songs were APT and he also played Let It Go. My favorite song was APT. I really enjoyed the assembly.

Saxophone Assembly

by: Jackson Escobedo

Hi my name is Jackson Escobedo and I am going to talk about the jazz assembly that we went to. This guy sang us some songs like 'Ain't No Sun Shine When She is Gone'. He had a jazz group and he played us some jazz with a piano, drums, and guitar.

On the Menu

by: Scarlett Escobedo

On November 18th, Kiersta and I cooked. We made chicken alfredo, garlic bread, and dirt cups. We made the dirt cups by crushing oreos and then adding the crushed oreos into the dirt cups. I will tell you how we made the chicken alfredo. First we cooked the chicken and boiled the noodles until the noodles were soft. We made the sauce by putting butter in a pot and melting it. When it was don we put in the cream cheese, half and half, and shredded parmesan cheese. We mixed it all together and it got thick. I loved cooking. It was a lot of fun with Kiersta. The food was SO DELICIOUS!

Teacher Talk

This quarter I'm handing this page over to Katrina Murschel, who interviewed our new staff member.

We have a new teacher's aide. Her name is Mrs. Dietz. She started on November 24th, 2025. We really like her.
